Jesus is Alive!

Jesus is Alive!

The Objective is the key concept for this week's lesson. It should be the main focus of the study.

These are the key verses that you will find helpful in teaching your study this week. The "Main passage" is the basis of the study, where the other verses support the objective of the lesson.

There is a memory verse for the students that relates to every study. If a student can memorize the verse for the following week you may give them a prize from the "reward box" found on your cart.

An introductory activity or question that will settle the class, draw their attention to the study and prepare their hearts for God's Word.

Objective This lesson will use the story in John 20:19-31 of Jesus appearing to Thomas to show that Jesus is alive and that He promises to bless those who believe without seeing.

Key Verses

John 20:19-31—Main Teaching Passage

Memory Verse - John 20:31

"But these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in His name."

Hook

Ask the kids to name some people who lived a very long time ago (Bible characters or historical figures). Ask if you can call these people on the phone or talk to them. We can't do that, because they aren't alive anymore.

What about Jesus? He lived a long time ago too, but we still talk to Him in prayer, sing songs to Him in worship, and listen to Him in His Word. That's because, as we will see in today's story, Jesus is alive today!

What does the Bible say? This is where we will read a passage or series of passages that teach on the subject of the day.

BOOK

Our story today picks up on the third day after Jesus died on the cross. The past three days had, no doubt, been the worst three days of the disciples' lives. Jesus, the Master they had spent the past three years following, living with, and learning from, had been captured by the Jewish leaders, falsely accused, and put to death on a cross by the Romans. One of their own had betrayed Him, and all of them had abandoned Jesus in His final hours. Now they were gathered in a room hiding from the Jewish leaders, fearing that they could be the next ones taken. That night, while everyone but Thomas was together, Jesus appeared in the middle of the room and said, "Peace be with you." The disciples saw His hands and side and knew it had to be Him and rejoiced that their Lord was alive.

When Thomas returned and heard that this happened, he didn't believe it was true. He said he wouldn't believe unless he saw the marks of the nails on Jesus' hands and touched His hands and side. Eight days later, all the disciples, including Thomas, were gathered together, and again Jesus appeared to them and said, "Peace to you." He then invited Thomas to touch His hands and side. To this, Thomas responded, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus answered, "Thomas, because you have seen Me, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed." John finishes the passage by saying that everything he wrote, was to show that Jesus is the Son of God so we could believe and have eternal life.

The interpretation/exegesis of the passage. What does this passage mean? How does this passage apply to my life?

LOOK

When we read about Jesus in the Bible, it can be easy for us to think of Him as a great man who lived a very long time ago. But when we think this way, we forget an important truth: Jesus is alive today! He might not be on the earth anymore, because He is in heaven with the Father, but He is still alive.

Some people today have a hard time believing that Jesus is alive because He lived so long ago and they have never seen Him. In our story today, Thomas also had a hard time believing that Jesus was alive, but for a different reason. Thomas had seen Jesus, his Friend and Teacher, being beat up and killed by the Romans. He thought there was no way Jesus could be alive after that. But the Bible tells us that on the third day, Jesus rose again from the dead and was alive. As we read, He appeared to all the disciples except Thomas, and they saw Him and spoke with Him. But even after the disciples told Thomas what they saw, he still didn't believe. Only when Jesus appeared to him several days later and invited him to touch His scars did he finally admit that Jesus was alive.

After Thomas called Jesus, “My Lord and My God,” Jesus’ answer was very interesting. He said that Thomas only believed because He saw Jesus, and said that those who don’t see Jesus but still believe are even more blessed. When Jesus said that, He was talking about us! Unlike Thomas, we might not be able to see Jesus with our eyes today. But just because we can’t see Him doesn’t mean He isn’t alive. Jesus is alive in heaven today, and will be alive for all eternity. He promises a blessing for all of us who will believe, even though we can’t see Him. There are many wonderful blessings for those who believe that Jesus is alive and ask Him to forgive our sins, but the best one is that those who believe will live with Him forever in heaven, where there is no more sin, pain, suffering, or death.

TOOK

Give an opportunity for any students who have never given their lives to Christ to believe that He is risen from the dead and ask Him to forgive their sins and be their Lord and Savior.

Pray: Worship Jesus for rising from the dead. Thank Him for making a way for us to live with Him forever. Ask Him to help everyone here today to believe that He is alive.

Family Question: What made Thomas believe that Jesus was alive?

What is my response to this passage of Scripture? How should my life change according to what this passage teaches me? What are the practical things I can do throughout the week to make this true in my life?

FURTHER STUDY

Commentary on John 20:19-31 by David Guzik

C. The disciples meet the risen Jesus.

1. (Jhn 20:19) Jesus appears in their midst.

Then, the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and said to them, "Peace be with you."

a. We are told of five appearances of Jesus on the resurrection day: to Mary Magdalene, to the women, to two on the road to Emmaus, to Peter and here to ten of the disciples, Thomas being absent. The Gospel of John tells of two of these five appearances.

b. When the doors were shut ... Jesus came and stood in the midst: How did Jesus enter the room? "We can scarcely say more than that John wants us to see that the risen Christ was not limited by closed doors. " (Morris) Apparently, resurrection bodies are not subject to the same limitations as our present bodies.

c. Peace be with you: After their desertion of Jesus on Friday, the disciples were probably expecting words of rebuke or blame. Instead, Jesus brought a word of peace, reconciling peace.

2. (Jhn 20:20-23) The risen Jesus ministers to His disciples (more than the ten are gathered here, according to Luke 24).

When He had said this, He showed them His hands and His side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord. So Jesus said to them again, "Peace to you! As the Father has sent Me, I also send you. " And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

a. He showed them His hands and His side: Jesus gives assurance to the disciples about who He is and that He really has risen from the dead.

b. As the Father has sent Me, I also send you: Jesus gives His disciples a mission, to continue His work on this earth.

c. Receive the Holy Spirit: Jesus gives His disciples the Holy Spirit, bringing new life and the ability to carry out their mission. Many people see the connection between this breathing on the disciples and when God created man, and breathed the breathe of life in him. This is a work of re-creation, even as God breathed life into the first man. This is where the disciples are born again.

d. If you forgive the sins of any: Jesus gives His disciples authority to announce forgiveness and to warn of guilt, as authorized by the Holy Spirit.

i. This lays down the duty of the church to proclaim forgiveness to the penitent believer, and the duty of the church to warn the unbeliever that they are in danger of forfeiting the mercy of God.

e. Jesus wants to continue this fourfold ministry of giving assurance, a mission, the Holy Spirit and authority to believers today.

3. (Jhn 20:24-29) Jesus convinces the previously absent disciple, the skeptic Thomas.

Now Thomas, called the Twin, one of the twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. The other disciples therefore said to him, "We have seen the Lord. " So he said to them, "Unless I see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I will not believe. " And after eight days His disciples were again inside, and Thomas with them. Jesus came, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, "Peace to you!" Then He said to Thomas, "Reach your finger here, and look at My hands; and reach your hand here, and put it into My side. Do not be unbelieving, but believing. " And Thomas answered and said to Him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Thomas, because you have seen Me, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed."

a. Unless I see ... I will not believe: Thomas is not a doubter, but an unbeliever who will not accept the valid testimony of others.

b. Do not be unbelieving, but believing: Jesus explicitly repeats Thomas' demands back to him. This must have been very impressive to Thomas, and very convincing.

i. Do not be unbelieving, but believing: Jesus also plainly commands him to cease his unbelief and to start believing

c. My Lord and my God: Both Lord and God were titles of deity, and Thomas boldly and explicitly assigns these titles to Jesus. Jesus accepts these titles, and did not tell Thomas, "Don't call Me that."

d. Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed: There is a special promise blessing given to those who believe. The faith of Thomas is the climax of the book: Jesus has triumphed over sickness, sin, evil men, death and sorrow; now He conquers unbelief.

e. Thomas is a good example in many ways. He refused to say he understood when he didn't, he refused to pretend to believe when he didn't. And when he did understand and believe, he went all the way and properly called Jesus Lord and God.

4. (Jhn 20:30-31) Summary statement of the book.

And truly Jesus did many other signs in the presence of His disciples, which are not written in this book; but these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in His name.

a. Jesus did many other signs: John admits that he presents an incomplete collection, written for a purpose.

b. One collects everything possible about a dead prophet; it is all one has of him. But one only tells enough of a living person to introduce one's hearers to him. John trusts that a personal relationship with Jesus will reveal more to the believer.
