Study 6

Yet Without Sin

Yet Without Sin

The Objective is the key concept for this weeks lesson. It should be the main focus of the study

These are the key verses that you will find helpful in teaching your study this week. The “Main passage” is the basis of the study, where the other verse support the objective of the lesson.

These are the books of the Bible we will be memorizing. New books for this month are in bold. If a student can memorize all the books up to this month’s books, you may give them a prize from the “reward box” found on your cart.

An introductory activity or question that will settle the class, draw their attention to the study and prepare their hearts for God’s Word.

Objective This lesson will show that Jesus was able to save us from our sin because He Himself was completely sinless.

Key Verses

Matthew 4:1-11—Main Teaching Passage

Luke 4:1-13 (Parallel Passage)

Hebrews 2:17-18; 4:14-16

Books to Memorize

Hook

Ask the class if they would ever go to a doctor if the doctor was sick. Would they ever learn from a teacher that didn’t know how to read, write, or add? Would they swim in a pool if the lifeguard didn’t know how to swim? Why not? Finally, would they trust a sinner to save them from their sin?

None of these people would be able to help because they needed help themselves. Today, we are going to learn that Jesus was able to save us from sin because He didn’t have any sin He needed to be saved from.

What does the Bible say? This is where we will read a passage or series of passages that teach on the subject of the day.

BOOK

Jesus was completely sinless. He lived on the earth for 33 years, and yet in all His time here, He never sinned once. In the four Gospels, not one time does it record Him disobeying His Father in thought, word, or deed. In today's story, we read about the greatest temptation to sin He faced, temptation that came from Satan himself.

Satan tried three times in our story today to tempt Jesus to sin. The first came after Jesus had spent 40 days in the wilderness without food. He was hungry, so Satan challenged Jesus to prove He was the Son of God by turning stones into bread. But Jesus answered from Scripture that man does not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God.

Next, Satan brought Jesus to the top of the temple and again told Him to prove He was the Son of God, this time, by jumping off the temple and letting the angels catch Him. Satan even quoted Bible verses to make his point, but Jesus quoted from the Old Testament that, "You shall not tempt the Lord your God."

Finally, Satan took Jesus to a high mountain and showed Him all the kingdoms of the earth. He offered all these kingdoms to Jesus if only He would bow down and worship him. But Jesus told Satan to go away and again referenced the Scripture that says to worship and serve the Lord only. Then Satan departed and the angels ministered to Jesus.

LOOK

As we've been studying the Gospel the last few weeks, we have seen that sin is what separates every person from God. Humanity needed to be saved from sin, so we needed a Savior who had no sin. Jesus is the only man in all of human history who fits that description. Hebrews 4:15 says that He was tempted in every way that we have been tempted, but the big difference is that He never sinned. In today's story, Jesus' sinlessness was tested, and in the end, it was proven that He was without sin. Therefore, He is able to save us from our sins.

Some might think, "Of course Jesus never sinned! He is God, after all." While this is true, what makes this truth so amazing is that, as we learned last week, Jesus was also human, just like you and me. Hebrews 2:17-18 talks about how Jesus became like us, experiencing temptation not just in today's story, but throughout His whole life. Again, we saw in Hebrews 4:15 that He was tempted in all the same ways we are. We know from experience just how hard it is not to sin. Try going a week, a day, or even an hour without lying, bragging, complaining, or saying something

The interpretation/exegesis of the passage. What does this passage mean? How does this passage apply to my life?

unkind, not to mention all the other temptations we face. Sometimes we are able to resist sin, but none of us are always able to do the right thing and overcome our temptation. But that's exactly what Jesus did. He was tempted just like we are His whole life, yet He never sinned once.

Just like a sick doctor or a burning firefighter wouldn't be much help, a sinful Savior wouldn't be able to save us from our sins. This is why it's so important that Jesus had no sin. As the message of the Gospel goes on, we will see that Jesus will die not because of His own sin, but because of our sin. Jesus didn't deserve to die, but He chose to die to save us.

In the verses we read in Hebrews, we see another benefit to having a Savior who was tempted, yet did not sin. Because He has experienced temptation and knows what it feels like to be tempted and He has defeated sin and knows how to overcome that temptation, He can help us when we face temptation. Hebrews 4:15 says He can "sympathize with our weaknesses," and Hebrews 2:18 says "He is able to aid those who are tempted." Because He's been through temptation, He knows what it feels like, knows how to defeat it, and can show us how.

TOOK

As a class, review the books of the Bible Matthew-Romans.

Review the lesson by asking the class what three things Satan tempted Jesus with and how Jesus responded.

Pray: Praise Jesus for overcoming temptation and living a life without sin. Ask for His help in our temptations.

Parent Question: Why does it matter that Jesus was sinless?

What is my response to this passage of Scripture? How should my life change according to what this passage teaches me? What are the practical things I can do throughout the week to make this true in my life?

FURTHER STUDY

Commentary on Matthew 4:1-11 by David Guzik

THE TEMPTATION OF JESUS

A. Jesus is tempted in the wilderness.

1. (Mat 4:1-2) Jesus is led to the place of temptation.

Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. And when He had fasted forty days and forty nights, afterward He was hungry.

a. Then Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted: After identifying with sinners in His baptism, Jesus then identified with them again in severe temptation. This was a necessary part of His ministry, so He truly was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness.

i. It was a remarkable contrast between the glory following Jesus' baptism and the challenge of this season to be tempted by the devil.

- Then the cool waters of the Jordan; now the barren wilderness.
- Then the huge crowds; now solitude and silence.
- Then the Spirit rests like a dove; now the Spirit drives Him into the wilderness.
- Then the voice of the Father calling Him "Beloved Son"; now the hiss of Satan the tempter.
- Then anointed; now attacked.
- Then the water of baptism; now the fire of temptation.
- First the heavens opened; now hell.

ii. Jesus did not need to be tempted to help Him grow. Instead, He endured temptation both so that He could identify with us (Hebrews 2:18 and 4:15), and to demonstrate His own holy, sinless character.

iii. The Holy Spirit cannot tempt us (James 1:13) but the Holy Spirit may lead us to a place where we will be tempted. This is not to prove something to God (who knows all things), but to prove something to us and to the spiritual beings watching us.

b. Tempted by the devil: Temptation is a certainty for everyone. Yet Jesus' temptation was more severe. It was more severe because He was tempted directly by the devil himself, while we contend mainly with lesser demons. It was also more severe because there is a sense in which temptation is "relieved" by giving in, and Jesus never did yield. Therefore He bore levels of temptation we will never know by experience.

i. Many commentators believe it is improper to refer to this section as the temptation of Jesus, because the word peirazo is more often and more accurately translated testing instead of temptation. "Peirazein has a quite different element in its meaning. It means to test far more than it means to tempt in our sense of the word." (Barclay)

ii. "Luther's remark stands true, that prayer, meditation, and temptation, are the three best instructors of the gospel minister." (Spurgeon)

c. He had fasted forty days and forty nights, afterward He was hungry: Matthew points out both the barren desert (the Judean wilderness was and is exactly that), and Jesus' severe physical condition after such a long fast. It is said that when hunger pains return after such a fast (He was hungry), it indicates the subject is beginning to starve to death.

i. "Here was the Divine power miraculously seen, in upholding the human nature of Christ without any thing to eat: this was a miracle." (Poole) Yet it was a miracle also evident in the lives of Moses (Exodus 34:28) and Elijah (1 Kings 19:8). It was supernatural, but not beyond human capacity when enabled by the Spirit of God.

d. Forty days and forty nights: This is a familiar period of testing in the Bible, both in the days of Noah and for Israel in the wilderness. Jesus will succeed where Israel as a nation failed.

i. "Our Saviour was tempted all that forty days' space, saith St. Luke; but these three worst assaults were reserved to the last."

ii. This wasn't self-denial just for the sake of self-denial, or worse yet for the sake of building spiritual pride. This was a period of forced dependence upon God the Father. We remember: He learned obedience through the things which He suffered (Hebrews 5:8).

2. (Mat 4:3-4) The first temptation: an appeal to the lust of the flesh.

Now when the tempter came to Him, he said, "If You are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread." But He answered and said, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God.'"

a. When the tempter came: Notice that Matthew writes when the tempter came. In our lives, it is not a question of if the tempter will come, but when he will come. We will face temptation until we go to glory.

i. "But let us do what we will, we shall be tempted. God had one Son without sin, but he never had a son without temptation." (Spurgeon)

ii. We should consider the circumstances that preceded the temptation of Jesus:

- He was in an especially devout frame of mind before His temptation.
- He was engaged in an act of public obedience to His Father's will before His temptation.
- He was in an exceedingly humble frame of mind before His temptation.
- He was blessed by a heavenly assurance of His Sonship before His temptation.
- He was filled with the Holy Spirit before His temptation.
- He was completely separated from the world before His temptation.

b. If You are the Son of God: The question asked by Satan is more literally "since You are the Son of God," instead of "if You are the Son of God." Satan was not questioning Jesus' deity, he challenged Him to prove it or demonstrate it through miraculous works.

c. Command that these stones become bread: This was a temptation to use God's gifts for selfish purposes.

Satan suggested that Jesus use His miraculous powers to provide food for Himself.

i. "Sonship of the living God, he suggested, surely means Jesus has the power and right to satisfy his own needs." (Carson)

ii. This wasn't a temptation to miraculously create great riches or luxuries, only bread. The Bible has many accounts of miraculous provision, some at the hands of Jesus. Yet Jesus would not command that these stones become bread, especially at the instigation of Satan.

iii. We might say that Jesus was being tested through His strengths, through His gifts. Would He allow His strengths to become traps? "He bids the Lord prove his Sonship by catering for himself; and yet that would have been the surest way to prove that he was not the Son of God." (Spurgeon) We could say that the same temptation came to Jesus on the cross (Matthew 27:40).

d. But He answered: Jesus didn't silently disagree with Satan, He answered him - and He answered him from the Word of God. When Jesus quotes Deuteronomy 8:3, Jesus shows that every word that proceeds from the mouth of God should be more precious to us than food itself.

i. What Satan suggested made sense - "Why starve yourself to death?" But what is written makes even more sense.

ii. "Hunger represents human wants, and the question was: whether Sonship was to mean exemption from these, or loyal acceptance of them as part of the Messiah's experience." (Bruce)

iii. It isn't that Jesus refused supernatural help in feeding Himself; He was more than happy to eat what the angels brought Him when the time of testing was over (Matthew 4:11). It wasn't a matter of refusing supernatural help; it was a matter of submitting to His Father's timing and will in all things.

e. It is written: By relying on the power and truth of God's Word, Jesus was willing to fight this battle as a man; He could have easily rebuked Satan into another galaxy, but resisted Him in a way that we can imitate and identify with.

i. Jesus used Scripture to battle Satan's temptation, not some elaborate spiritual power inaccessible to us. Jesus fought this battle as a man in this battle, and He drew on no "special resources" unavailable to us. "Out flashed the sword of the Spirit: our Lord will fight with no other weapon. He could have spoken new revelations, but chose to say, 'It is written.'" (Spurgeon)

ii. He could have stood against Satan with a display of His own glory; He could have stood against Satan with logic and reason. Instead, Jesus used the word of God as a weapon against Satan and temptation.

- He used a weapon that one can use when they are all alone.

- He used a weapon to defend His Sonship.

- He used a weapon to defeat temptation.

- He used a weapon that was effective because He understood it.

iii. We effectively resist temptation in the same way Jesus did: by countering Satan's seductive lies by shining the light of God's truth upon them. If we are ignorant of God's truth, we are poorly armed in the fight against temptation.

3. (Mat 4:5-7) The second temptation: an appeal to the pride of life.

Then the devil took Him up into the holy city, set Him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down. For it is written: 'He shall give His angels charge over you,' and, 'In their hands they shall bear you up, Lest you dash your foot against a stone.'" Jesus said to him, "It is written again, 'You shall not tempt the LORD your God.'"

a. If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down: Satan is tempting Jesus to "force" the Father into a supernatural event. Satan appeals to the desire within every man to sense approval from God and to have that approval publicly demonstrated.

i. Set Him on the pinnacle of the temple: The pinnacle of the temple arose some 200 feet from the floor of the Kidron Valley. A leap from there, and the appearance of the promised angelic protection, would be a remarkable spectacle.

ii. "The devil's suggestions was of an artificially created crisis, not of trusting God in the situations which result from obedient service." (France)

iii. "This was the very method that the false Messiahs who were continually arising promised ... These pretenders had offered sensations which they could not perform. Jesus could perform anything he promised. Why should he not do it?" (Barclay)

iv. Jesus just had this kind of spectacular demonstration at His baptism (Matthew 3:17). But that must have seemed far away after forty days and nights of fasting in the wilderness.

b. For it is written: The devil can use this phrase also. He quotes Scripture, and we can trust that the devil has memorized the Bible himself, and is an expert at quoting it out of its context to confuse and defeat those he tempts. This time, the devil quoted Psalm 91:11-12, and took it out of its context to say, "Go ahead, Jesus; if You do this the Bible promises angels will rescue You, and it will be spectacular self-promotion."

i. "Satan borrowed our Lord's weapon, and said, 'It is written'; but he did not use the sword lawfully. It was not in the nature of the false fiend to quote correctly. He left out the necessary words, 'in all thy ways': thus he made the promise say what in truth it never suggested." (Spurgeon)

ii. "Truth may be abused to the patronage of lies; and that there is no hook more dangerous to the members of Christ, than that which is baited with Scripture misinterpreted and misapplied." (Poole)

- This text is falsely quoted, because the devil left out the words, "To keep you in all your ways." To test God in this way was not of Jesus' way; it was not of the way of the Savior or Messiah. "God had never promised, nor ever given, any protection of angels in sinful and forbidden ways." (Poole)

- This text is wrongly applied, because it was not used to teach or encourage, but instead to deceive. "Making this word a promise to be fulfilled upon Christ's neglect of his duty; extending the promise of special providence as to dangers into which men voluntarily throw themselves." (Poole)

iii. Jesus understood from His knowledge of the whole counsel of God (Acts 20:27) that Satan was twisting this passage from Psalm 91. Jesus knew how to rightly divide the word of truth (2 Timothy 2:15). Sadly, many are willing to believe anyone who quotes from the Bible today. A preacher can pretty much say whatever he wants if he quotes a few proof-texts, and people will assume that he really speaks from the Bible. It is important for each Christian to know the Bible for themselves, and to not be deceived by someone who quotes the Bible but not accurately or with correct application.

c. It is written again, "You shall not tempt the LORD your God." Jesus replied with Scripture, but applied correctly. He knew that attempting to force or manipulating God the Father into such a demonstration would tempt God, which the Scriptures strictly forbid.

i. This warns us against demanding something spectacular from God to prove His love or concern for us. He has already given the ultimate demonstration of His love for us at the cross (Romans 5:8), and He can do nothing more "spectacular" than that.

ii. "The focus is again on his relationship to God. As Son of God, he could surely claim with absolute confidence the physical protection which God promises in Psalm 91:11-12 ... The Son of God can live only in a relationship of trust which needs no test." (France)

4. (Mat 4:8-10) The third temptation: an appeal to the lust of the eyes.

Again, the devil took Him up on an exceedingly high mountain, and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. And he said to Him, "All these things I will give You if You will fall down and worship me." Then Jesus said to him, "Away with you, Satan! For it is written, 'You shall worship the LORD your God, and Him only you shall serve.'"

a. All these things I will give You: Essentially, this vision invited Jesus to take a shortcut around the cross. Jesus came to win all the kingdoms of the world and their glory back from Satan's domain, and Satan offers them to Jesus, if He will only fall down and worship him.

i. It again may seem a small thing; Jesus could lay claim to all the kingdoms of the world and their glory, and do so without enduring the cross. "The danger is greatest when the end is good." (Bruce)

ii. All He would have to do is give Satan what he has been longing for ever since he fell from glorious to profane: worship and recognition from God Himself. This is a revealing insight into Satan's heart; worship and recognition are far more precious to him than the possession of the kingdoms of the world and their glory. He is still the one who said I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; I will also sit on the mount of the congregation on the farthest sides of the north; I will ascend above the heights of the clouds, I will be like the Most High. (Isaiah 14:13-14)

iii. "If the words, all the kingdoms of the world, be taken in a literal sense, then this must have been a visionary representation, as the highest mountain on the face of the globe could not suffice to make evident even one hemisphere of the earth, and the other must of necessity be in darkness." (Clarke)

iv. If we can't exactly say how Satan showed Jesus this, we can say with some certainty what Satan did not show Jesus: "Satan offers the kingdoms of the world and their 'splendor' without showing their sin." (Carson)

b. I will give You: Evidently, Satan has authority over this world and its governments. The temptation could not have been real unless there is some real sense that Satan does "possess" all the kingdoms of the world ## and their glory.

i. Adam and his descendants gave the devil this authority. God gave Adam the earth as a stewardship (Genesis 1:28-30), and Adam willingly turned it over to Satan. After that, all Adam's descendants cast their vote of approval by their personal sin.

ii. Of course, ultimately, all things belong to God; but God allows Satan to function as the god of this age (2 Corinthians 4:4) for a purpose. This is why the fallen world is in the mess it is.

iii. "The tempter does not dare to mention Sonship in this case; for that would have laid the blasphemous suggestion too bare. No son of God can worship the devil." (Spurgeon)

c. Away with you, Satan! For it is written: Jesus replied with Scripture again, and commanded the devil to leave. In the same way we can resist the devil and he will flee from you (James 4:7). It worked for Jesus (Then the devil left Him) and it will work for us.

i. "The word of God hath a power in it to quail and to quash Satan's temptations, far better than that wooden dagger, that leaden sword of the Papists, their holy water, crossings, grains, dirty relics ... It is not the sign of the cross, but the word of the cross, that overthrows Satan." (Trapp)

ii. The temptations of Jesus also remind us that it is no sin to be tempted, as long as the temptation is resisted. Even horrible temptations - Jesus was tempted to worship Satan - are not in themselves sin if they are resisted.

5. (Mat 4:11) The devil leaves and angels come to Jesus.

Then the devil left Him, and behold, angels came and ministered to Him.

a. Then the devil left Him means that Jesus won. He won because He recognized Satan's mode of attack: lies and deception. Primarily, Satan is a deceiver, and for those who live in light of the cross, deception is his only tool, because demonic powers were disarmed at the cross of their "real" weapons and power (Colossians 2:15). But deception is extremely effective at leading us into sin, and at causing us to live lives of fear and unbelief.

i. Jesus showed the only effective counter to deception: God's truth, not man's wisdom. First, we must see temptation for what it is - a lie. Then, we must combat temptation with the word of God. Then, we must always build ourselves up in the truth, and have it in our heart.

ii. Each passage Jesus quoted back to Satan in this section comes from Deuteronomy chapters 6 and 8. It is not unreasonable to suppose that Jesus was meditating on those very passages, and He fought Satan with the fresh bread He fed on. We should make sure we always have some fresh bread to answer Satan with.

iii. "It is noteworthy that all the passages quoted by our Lord are from the Book of Deuteronomy, which book has been so grievously assailed by the destructive critics. Thus did our Lord put special honor upon that part of the Old Testament which he foresaw would be most attacked. The past few years have proved that the devil does not like Deuteronomy: he would fain avenge himself for the wounds it caused him on this most memorable occasion." (Spurgeon)

iv. Jesus thought this was important for us to know; only He could have told the Gospel writers what happened when He was tempted in the Judean wilderness. We need to learn from this; to learn how we can overcome temptation, but even more importantly how Jesus overcame temptation on our behalf and succeeded as the sinless Son of God where Adam and Moses and all others had failed.

b. Behold, angels came and ministered to Him: God never forsakes those who endure through temptation. Even as angels came and ministered to Jesus, God will find a way to minister to us and meet our needs as we endure temptation.

i. "The angelic help of Psalm 91:11, which Jesus refused to call for illegitimately, is now appropriately given. Ministered implies particularly the provision of food, and again the experience of Elijah seems to be recalled (1 Kings 19:5-8)." (France)

ii. "These holy beings might not come upon the scene while the battle was being fought, lest they should seem to divide the honors of the day; but when the duel was ended, they hastened to bring food for the body, and comfort for the mind of the champion King." (Spurgeon)
